MERCHANTS BATTLE FARMERS IN BIG

DONKEY BASKETBALL GAME

The stage has been set for the season's most colorful game to be played in the Seymour gymnasium on Wednesday, March 25 at 7:30 P. M. Captain Rudy Nichols is sending a strong Merchant team against an under-rated Farmer team in a game entitled Donkey Basketball.

The game promises to be filled with spills, thrills and laughter from the opening whistle until the finish. If you plan to attend, it might be wise to get your tickets in advance from any members of the basketball squad.

A capacity crowd is expected to watch the season's most fascinating game. On paper, the Merchant team is favored to win. However, the Farmers' talent can't be denied and according to the latest reports, the Farmers are planning to upset Rudy's apple cart.

Here are the reserve members for the Farmers: Bob Cresap, Max Turner, Ralph Bladow, Ed Pfeffer, Don Christie, Wayne Cade, Harold Phipps, Junior Bell, H. R. Sallee, and Arthur Armstrong.

The Merchants will have such capable subs as Lloyd Cade, Bob Robbins, Carrol Bowman, Ed Farlow, Fred Karr, Clyde Carper, Dale Pitcher, Dutch Young, Toad Dunlap and Coonie Young.

The probable lineups:

DANCE TO BE STAGED

The Seymour School and School Board are planning a dance to be held in the Seymour gym on Friday, April 10. The money cleared on the dance will be used in purchasing a public-address system for the school and the community.

Johnnie Bruce and his band will furnish the music for the occasion.

Let's make arrangements to be on hand.

FREE ENTERTAINMENT

The people in and around Seymour were invited to attend a free program Friday (TODAY) at 8:45. It was held in the Seymour gym.

"2-10" J. B. Daniel, a ventriloquist, put on a puppet show, which proved very interesting. At the time of this writing, Mr. Gum wondered if he wasn't another Edgar Bergen and Charley McCarthy.

ALL-SCHOOL PLAY TO BE GIVEN

In case you suddenly hear a loud noise coming from the direction of the Seymour High School on the night of April 8, 1942, don't be alarmed. It will just be the townsfolk you hear, bent double and holding their sides from laughing so hard.

And what will they be laughing about? One look at the stage will answer your question. Miss Harris, our English and History teacher, is in charge of a play to be given on that night.

The name of the play is "A Ready-Made Family" and the cast will be announced in the next edition of the See-More.

EDITORIAL

The basketball season has drawn to a close. Your principal and coach wish to thank all of those people who supported the team all through the year, and those ardent fans who could take defeat along with victory. Not once during the season did Seymour have a technical foul called on her.

We are proud of this season in that respect and wish to thank all for their fine sportsmanship.

Many of the fans weathered the storms, in order to be with the team when they were showing or playing away from home. This gave courage to the boys and showed them you were interested in the outcome of the games. These fans deserve much credit and glory.

It takes more than a coach and five players to win basketball games. We haven't won all of our games by any means, but we have upset several good teams at the proper time in winning 13 games.

The support given the team and the coach has given determination to these boys.

A school spirit has been built up among the County schools and the schools of the Sangamon Valley conference with Seymour. Lets hope that this splendid spirit can be carried on in years to come.

It can with the splendid sportsmanship that we have seen displayed the past season on our own floor as well as away.

--E. G. Gum, Principal

BASKETBALL REVIEW

The development of school spirit is thought to be closely related to athletics.

Before going any farther, I wish to take my hat off to Seymour's "Big Twelve." They are

Captain Maurice Phipps, Kenneth Seymour, Rudolph Nichols, Paul Christie, Billy Robbins, Pete Newberry, Billy Zimdars, Richard Karr and Vincent Early.

I am proud to say that our school was well represented in the cheering section as well as in the athletic department in the persons of Doris Bell, Maxine Medlock and Jean Bruder. It was through their enthusiasm and their way of arousing crowds that helped Seymour's spirit in many games.

Those who have followed the fortunes of Seymour on the hardwood this season will acknowledge that it has been a successful one. And in bestowing the credit for all of this, no one will deny that the greater share is due to the intiring efforts of our "Big 12."

Everyone realizes that our astounding band of Redskins ended a season in which our team won 13 games while dropping 16. Some of our victories have been scored at the expense of four-year high schools such as Deland, Alvin, Sidney, Mansfield and Philo. Other schools who fell before our touted Redskins were Ludlow twice, Foosland twice, Cisco twice and Broadlands once.

No one should feel badly to lose to such teams as Farmers City, Weldon, Tolono, St. Joseph, Wapella, Uni High, Mansfield and Sidney.

However, our three losses to Pesotum will long be remembered.

In conclusion, this department removes their hat to our "Big Twōlve" for giving Seymour a successful season.

WHAT IS THE SECRET OF SUCCESS?

Button--"Push."

Pencil--"Never be lead."

Window--"Take pains."

Ice----"Always keep cool."

Calendar--"Be up to date."

Barrel--"Never lose your head."

Fire--"Make light of everything."

Hammer--"Do a driving business."

Balloon--"Go higher up."

Knife--"Be sharp."

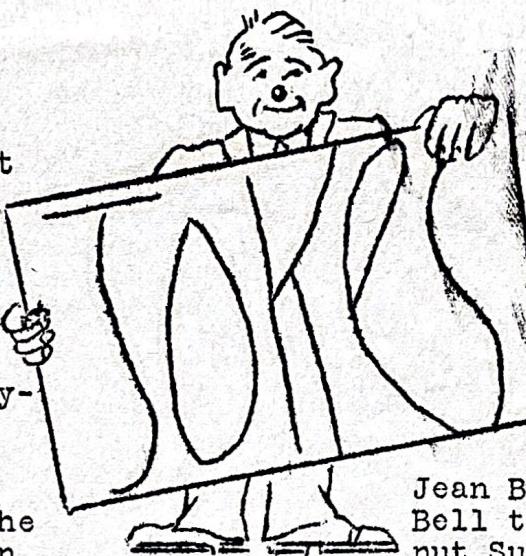

Glue--"Find a good thing and stick to it."

Chimney--"Do the work you're suited for."

SOLVE IT

If two girls, Wilma Kingston and Marilyn Turner, can pick four gallons of blackberries in four hours--how many can a tooth-pick?

DID YOU KNOW THAT----Freida Mara returned to school on Wednesday after a short vacation.----Volleyball is swooping Seymour high school by storm.----Report cards were out on Monday afternoon.

Maxine Bell--Why wasn't Maxine Medlock at the dance? I thought she was the most popular girl in town.

Vincent Early--That's just the trouble. She's so popular; everyone thought it was no use to ask her.

Marilyn Turner--Does the sheriff have to take an oath to support the constitution while in office?
Patty Karr--No, he takes the oath to support his wife.

Mr. Sallce--Why did pre-historic man live alone?
Alice Kessler--I suppose, because there were no women.

Mr. Cade--How did they sell the slaves.

Wilma Kingston--By the pound, I suppose.

Vincent Early--Did you ever let a man kiss your hand?

Cleo Seymour--Never more than once.

Vincent Early--Why only once?

Cleo Seymour--"Dumb-bell! What are your lips for?"

Mr. Gum--What is the difference between a long and short ballot?

Maurice Phipps--They're not the same length.

WHY NOT?

Roger Gum, having seen his father lying on the bed snoring, went running to his mother. "Oh, mommy, come and listen to Daddy purring," he cried.

Gene Dunlap--Shall we have a friendly game of cards?

Freida Mara--No, let's play bridge.

Mrs. Seymour--Where'd you get the black-eye?

Kenneth--Jumping.

Mrs. Seymour--What?

Kenneth--Yes. Jumping at conclusions about the girl I dated last night.

Mrs. Carper--Little Neoma has the stomach-ache.

Mr. Carper--Call the Secretary of Interior.

Safety Lecturer--In New York City, there is a man run over every 10 minutes.

Vincent--What a man?

Miss Kershaw--What's the difference between a mule and a postage stamp?

Paul Christie--One you lick with a stick, and the other you stick with a lick.

Mr. Sallee--Junior, conjugate the verb set.

Junior Matteson--Set, hatch-er.

Mr. Sallee--You need not go farther.

Mrs. Gum: "I've been looking for my husband for two hours." Miss Harris: "That's nothing. I've been looking for mine for 20 years and haven't found him yet."

Jean Bruder informed Doris Bell that she had a lovely nut Sundae. "Honest," said Doris. "I have one coming from Fisher to take me riding tonight."

Maurice Phipps: "Your little sister saw me kiss you. How much shall I give her to keep her from telling your mother?" Freida Mara: "Well, she usually gets a quarter."

Ethel Zimdars: "What kind of stoves did the ancients use?" Myrtle Burton: "I think they were mountain ranges."

Miss Harris: "Your answer is about as clear as mud." Robin Carper: "Well, that covers the ground, doesn't it?"

Bus Nichols: "Say, Geraldine, what is the difference between a pitchfork and a toothpick?"

Geraldine Epperson: "I haven't the slightest idea."

Bus Nichols: "Well, I'd sure hate to have you pick my teeth."

Billy Robbins: "Time me around the block, Coach?"

Coach Smith: "Sure, Wait till I get my calendar."

Billy Zimdars says it isn't always the bashful guy who looks down when a pretty flapper passes.

Wilma Kingston--"Why can't lightning strike the front end of a streetcar?"

Richard Karr--"Because the motor man is a non-conductor."

Robin Carper--"Have you read Finis?"

Hazel Burton--"No, what is it?"

Robin Carper--"Oh, its the last word in books."

Game Warden (talking to a violator of State fish laws)--"What are you doing my little man? Fishing?"

William Prahl (looking up and seeing his star)--"No, just drowning fishworms."

ADVICE CORNER--Always drive fast out of alleys; you might hit someone. There's no telling.

SPRING IS COMING

FROSH NEWS

Well, here we are again prying into the Freshies private affairs (as usual).

We wonder who Geraldina, my Geraldina, was with Monday night? Won't Orville be jealous???????

We hear that Miss Maxine Bell has turned her attention once more to a certain little Sophomore boy up Gifford way. How about it????

We wonder who the tall, dark and handsome boy is from Mansfield that Cleo has fallen for??? Or is he a blond????

We wonder why Jean Bruder didn't want to have the play on April 10. Could it be that she wanted to attend a Junior-Senior banquet at Fisher???????

What was it that Maxine Medlock said Paul Christie wouldn't do and the next minute he did it? Tell us, Christie, Please!

We have heard that Maxine stayed awake Monday evening for quite a while thinking of the one and only Freshman boy. Did you, Medlock?

Grade Gossip

Patsy Mara

The upper grade room is looking forward to Final on March 13. It sounds like an unlucky day, but we hope it will prove otherwise. Our final drawings are just about finished. We are studying hard and hope to rank high in our grade standings.

The "pencil sharpener" romance has gone overboard! The boy that caused it has moved away from the pencil sharpener. We're sorry for a certain sixth grade girl.

We wonder why Luetta (Howard) Burton is interested in Mansfield. Maybe she likes to pull hair!---- Why Junior Matteson is afraid of being bitten.---- Why Mr. Sallee needs a wife.---- Now the "can" and the "Jingle Bell" are getting along.---- If "Sadie's Snooping Sisters will find Sallee a wife.

5th and 6th NEWS

by

WINIFRED BELL

The sixth grade class is reading about bees, ants, and caterpillars. We have learned quite a bit about ants. They have wings, and when they find their homes, they gnaw each others wings off. The insects that we have studied about are honeybees, bumblebees, yellow jackets, wasps, and hornets.

On February 19 and 20 the upper grade room wrote their 3rd quarter exams. On the average, the grades were better than they were for the 2nd quarter.

Our bulletin board is getting quite popular, especially among the 8th grade. Mr. Sallee said it would be a good idea to read the suggestions on it before writing the exams. All the 8th grade girls want to read it when a certain 8th grade boy does.

The sixth grade are reading some interesting books to report on, so they will receive a seal for their Reading Certificate.

Three new dictionaries and an automatic pencil sharpener were brought into our room last January. Now we have eight dictionaries instead of only five.

Mary Lou Pfeister visited our room on February 21. She attends Union School and her teacher is Geraldine Hickle. She visited here with her cousin, Winifred Bell.

Sh to thank the rest of the sixth grade pupils for helping me write this news.

JOKES

Miss Harris: What words are used most by high school students?

Billy Zimdars: I don't know.

Miss Harris: Correct.

Maurice: When I saw her, she was wearing her skirts four feet from the ground.

Billy Robbins: (Quickly)--Where is? Maurice--Don't get excited, she was standing on the porch steps.

Mr. Smith remarked that if the politicians worked as hard to fill their jobs as they do to get them, what a wonderful country we'd have.

Dotty Cobb--Did you know they don't have any insane asylums in Arabia?

Beulah--No, why don't they?

Dotty--Because there are nomad people in that country.

Those insignificant creatures called Freshmen have been in our hall of learning for nearly a year and it is hoped that they will learn how to properly conduct themselves by following the example of the noble Juniors.

Maxine Medlock was practicing on her horn, "The Desert Song." She remarked to her father that her horn was not playing well. Finally, she found water on the valves and her father said, "Well daughter, I thought you knew there was no water on the desert."

The Three Black Aces are dedicating the poem below "WHY GRUMBLE" to the teachers at Seymour.
 When you have bunions on your feet
 Bear them with resignation sweet
 For you are fortunate indeed
 Suppose you were a centipede
 Be patient when your throat is sore
 You haven't any cause to roar
 At ills like these you may laugh
 And be thankful you are no giraffe
 If rheumatism is in your limbs
 Your happiness at times bedims
 You haven't any right to cuss
 Suppose you were an octopus
 And if toothache bothers you
 Consider that your teeth are few
 Compared to those which you remark
 Upon the jawbone of a shark.

WE WONDER--If Pete isn't sorry for joining the navy.--Why Mr. Smith and Mr. Sallee got off of the bus in Mettoon last Saturday afternoon.- Who called Mrs. Turner on Thursday from Montgomery, Alabama.--Why only one boy tried out for the operetta on Wednesday.--What eight grade girl held Paul's hand coming back from Mahomet a few weeks ago.--Mr. Sallee was really happy when he read his draft notice on Tuesday.

Speaking of cruelty, the three black aces recently went over to Maxine Bell's and she was beating eggs. Well, we excused her for that but last night we went over and she was whipping cream.

ADVICE SECTION--Always drive close to pedestrians in wet weather. Dry cleans will erect a monument to your memory.

THE THREE BLACK ACES ARE MAD. We have a complaint to register with Mr. Gum. For some time we have been as popular as anyone at Seymour. However, we weren't asked to have our pictures snapped for the Reflector.

SEYMCUR COMPETES IN MUSIC MEET

Twenty-seven musical organizations from 19 high schools won the right to enter the sectional meeting of the annual Illinois High School association music contest at Peoria May 1 and 2 by winning division one ratings in the district competition at Charleston last Saturday.

Some 2,000 high school musicians from 36 schools took part in the contest which was held on the Eastern Illinois State Teachers college campus, with Charleston Teachers College high school as host. There were 57 bands and choruses in the contest.

The competing schools were divided into class A, schools with enrolments over 800, class B, enrolments between 301 and 800; class C, enrolments between 150 and 300, and class D enrolments up to 150.

Division one winners in class D were Kansas, Ogden, St. Joseph, Chrisman and Oakland in girls chorus; St. Joseph in boys' chorus and mixed chorus, and Fisher Kansas, Edinburgh, Bethany and Oakland in band.

Seymour's band was handicapped in many respects due to size, lack of instrumentation, and also due to the fact that Bus Nichols and Richard Karr failed to make the trip.

The trip was made by bus. Enroute to Charleston, the students enjoyed a visit through station WDW in Tuscola.

Everyone seemed to have had a marvelous time despite the fact that our musicians failed to walk off with any firsts.

--- By ---
--- The Tatler ---

"Junior girl was overheard making this remark: "I hate the fact that the basketball season is over." We wonder why????????? P. S. It was one of the candy sales-girls.

FLASH! FLASH! Detective Smith has just found out why Wilma Kingston is going to marry. He says it is so she will have a COOK already and won't have to hire one.

At least there is one poetic writer the Junior boys like to study about. Her name is Amy Lowell, and the reason they like her is: She would sit in her chair with her feet up over her desk and smoke a "stogie" as she wrote her poetry. Maybe Maurice likes it because it's written in blank verse.

From the sound of the words coming out of Bussie's mouth, you would think he had a large vocabulary. Especially when he starts to denounce his typing teacher for taking paper out of his typewriter. Do you become really sure that, whether he has a "good" one or not, it sure is large enough.

According to the philosophy of Bruce Jordan, if Mr. Sallee wants a wife, all he needs to do is whistle. That's what the Seymour boys do when they want a date.

DID YOU KNOW THAT---The Juniors has "rhythm."----That Mr. Gum was a shrewd business man, judging from a story he was telling the Business Training Class the other day.----Bill Robbins, had so much gum in his mouth in Business Training class one day that he couldn't even talk.---Don Christic, a former student, says not to go with over a half a dozen girls at one time. This statement was particularly interesting to three little girls on the back row.----These same girls were disappointed when they found that only a few minutes later their boy-friends hadn't come to take them to "Johnny Eager."

Herc's some undergrad news:

It seems that we have some good detectives here in our school. I am speaking of three girls who really think the "Tatler" is a tattler. They would get better results if they would go about things in the right manner. Maybe they already know it, but I can tell them that the "Mansfield" boys aren't co-operative.

It seems as if I have almost forgotten to say SO-LONG FRIENDS.

PHILO OUSTS SEYMORE

All good things must come to an end sooner or later and as a result the Philo Tiger came through with one of the biggest surprise victories of the season by eliminating Seymour 24 to 19 in the first game of the Mansfield district tournament.

Coach Dale Smith's Redskins were as cold as the March wind. After staging a belated third period rally, the Tigers pulled the game out of the fire in the final three minutes of the fourth quarter.

A dribble-in-basket by Pete Newberry and a free toss by Pete again, gave the locals a 19 to 16 margin with three minutes to play. Baskets by Silver, Wilson, Mumm and Boles in the closing minutes ended Seymour's play for the season in a surprising manner.

Philo, winner over Seymour, was eliminated from the tournament on the following night by Saybrook. Sadorus nosed out Saybrook 39 to 36 in the district finals.

ALUMNI GAME PLANNED

Next Tuesday evening a squad of alumni players will meet the high school players. The proceeds will be turned over to the church.

It is likely that another game will be added to the attraction. A large crowd is expected for the occasion.

 TWISTERS *****

The basketball season of 1941-1942 was a real success. At the start of the campaign, prospects were everything but rosey for a successful season. We finished our schedule with a grand flourish. We outscored our opponents in the Sangamon Valley conference and in the county play. In two departments of athletics we made a great success, in physical condition and sportsmanship. The remainder of this column will give the Seymour cage fans some added information on the 1941-42 cagers.

Maurice Phipps, a junior, was a "captain of captains." Endowed with a "never-say-die" spirit, Phipps led the team through many tough spots. He was overflowing with aggressiveness and loyalty. He was a good influence on and off the floor as he possessed all of the requisite qualities of leadership.

Kenneth Seymour was always a dependable performer. He was the leading scorer for the season and was among the most consistent on the team. Ken will be greatly missed by Seymour teams of the future.

Rudolph Nichols proved his worth in many hard-fought games. He was one of the scrappiest players on the team. His services will be greatly missed next year.

Paul Christie was one of the smallest and youngest forwards in the county but one of the best shots on the team. Once Paul got set, it meant two points. The small speed merchant is a freshman and should spell trouble for Seymour's opponents in future years.

Billy Robbins rose rapidly to the varsity, where he had considerable success. Billy is a sophomore and should prove a valuable asset to the squad.

Vincent Early gave basketball its first fling this year. Although he failed to make the first five, Vincent saw some varsity action and showed great promise.

Ernest "Pete" Newberry was a reserve forward. Hardly a game was played in which Pete failed to get a chance to show his wares.

Richard "Deke" Karr showed a tendency to become a bit rattled under fire, but nevertheless, was a valuable man during the first part of the season. An operation kept Dick on the sidelines during the second half of the season.

Billy Zimdars, a sophomore, was a fighting reserve with a strong heart. Bill should be around next year and has high hopes of becoming a varsity man.

This is station S C R I P T bringing to you all of the news and scribbages of the day. It is with great pride that the rambling reporter is knocking and whistling once again on your doorstep. At times I feel as if I am not already a victim of that dreaded spring disease, commonly known as spring-ititis.

This week your rambling reporter is paying a visit to the juniors of Seymour high school. Our first visit starts with Ken Seymour.

He informs us that Love is like insurance. The older you get, the more it costs you.

Our caller No. 2 is Rudolph "Bus" Nichols. Bus says there are a thousand things in life worth while. One is wine, another is basketball, and the 998 other things are women.

At this time our visiting was slightly interrupted. The bell rang. Slowly she rose to her feet and shook her clinched fist toward the smiling blue sky. The sun shone brightly and the birds sang blithely. For all of the rest of the world there was laughter and pleasure but not for Wilma Kingston. Her world lay a broken bubble at her feet. All was dismal. There was no justice. For the first time during the last six weeks, Wilma had gone to Shorthand prepared and Mr. Smith had missed class.

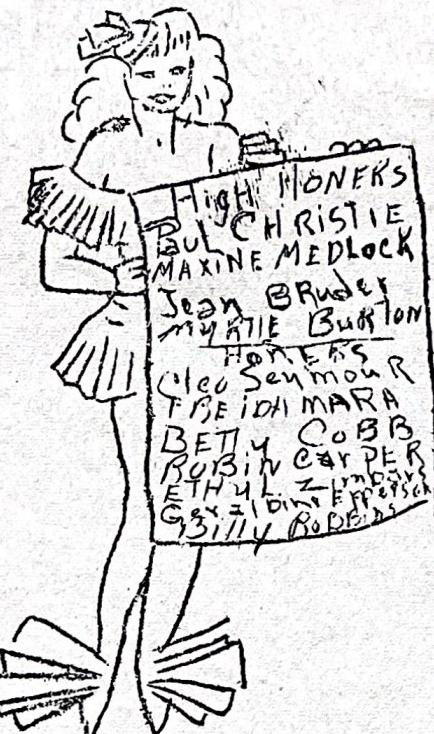

Outside of the commercial room stood Vincent Early. He asked, "You say you don't see any change in me." "No," was my reply. "Well, I just swallowed fifteen cents."

The next interesting person I met was Ethel Zimdars, a quiet-termed girl, was afraid that the Seymour high school was haunted because Billy had been talking for several weeks about a school spirit aroused on the basketball squad.

PRESENTING

As we motor into the English class, your rambling reporter, learns that Freida Mara is rapidly become a poet. Here is her latest piece of work.

Little dabs of powder,
Little specks of paint
Make Wilma's freckles
Look as if they ain't.

As I move into the assembly, I have the opportunity of meeting those popular Burton sisters, Hazel and Myrtle.

Hazel tells us her cat is very hospitable. She gives you a bite any time. Sister Myrtle remarked that velocity is what a girl lets go of a bumble bee with.

As I peeked in Mr. Gum's office, I saw Maurice Phipps teaching Reverend Dale Pitcher the fundamentals of typewriting.

If Uncle Sam doesn't call before the next edition, your rambling reporter may visit the Sophomore group in the next edition of the SEEMORE. Cheerio-folkses--WE WONDER WHY--Rev. Dale Pitcher and E. G. Gum are given so much trouble with the mothers over their daughters. Could it be on account of too many dates?--Who was elected as the "Biggest Bluffer?"
